

1. Game Eligibility

- We accept board games, card games, and related accessories, including games for kids.
- Games must be in good, playable condition. Any notable wear or missing components must be disclosed.

2. Consignment Number

- Each seller must register on the BasGame Basar website¹ and obtain a consignment number (you can find the instructions in the BasGame website). This number is your identification as a seller and all items that you would like to sell will be associated with this number.

3. Consignment Fee

- Participation in the Fleamarket has a fixed fee of 5 CHF + 10% of your final sale amount.
- Fees are deducted from the total gross revenue of all your sold items, after the event.

4. List Submission

- You must input all your selling items on the BasGame Basar website.

5. Information and Pricing

- All prices must be in CHF.
- Sellers must use the online tool on the BasGame Basar website to generate one QR code per item.
- All items must have the corresponding QR code attached. We will not sell items without an attached QR code.

6. Game Drop-off

- You are required to have a valid BasGame ticket to access the Flea Market.
- Bring your labeled items to the venue entrance between 09:00 and 09:30. Our volunteers will take over from there.

7. Sales Process and Payment

- BasGame volunteers will handle all transactions.
- Net revenue from your sale will be processed through bank transfer after the event. BasGame organizers will contact you to collect and provide the necessary information.

8. Unsold Items

- You are responsible for collecting all your games that were not sold, at the end of BasGame.
- Uncollected games are considered a donation to the BasGame library.

¹ This website is reachable from the BasGame website after accepting this rules.

9. Communication

- We operate in good faith and do our best to minimize errors. Yet, they might happen. If that is the case, contact us.
- Please maintain open communication with BasGame organizers regarding any questions or concerns.

10. Enjoy the event

- While your games are for sale, take the time to enjoy BasGame and interact with fellow enthusiasts.

DISCLAIMER:

Please note that BasGame is not liable for any lost or stolen items during the event. We make every effort to provide a secure environment—after all, our own games are on the line too! If an unfortunate loss occurs we are unable to replace lost items or provide financial compensation.

By consigning your games, you accept the rules above.

Your participation not only contributes to the vibrant board gaming community but also supports BasGame's mission. Thank you for your involvement, and we hope you have a fantastic experience at BasGame! 🎲💛

BasGame
Basel, 2025